

Love 'em or loathe 'em - autumn carp continue to feed...

As temperatures start to fall

WHEN autumn starts closing in, carp are THE stillwater species which can pretty much be relied on to keep feeding through ever-colder nights.

And Stanwick's biggies are no exception as the venue produced a parade of 20s - led by Lewis Hemming's 31-2 mirror - over the past week.

Other Elson's fish included Dan Sibley's 25 and Simon Bailey's PB 28-14 common, while on Mallard Jamie Coles had a 27lb common PB as Andrew Allen netted a 22 and Brad Wegner a 20. Brandon Smith had a 22 from Swan.

● TOWCESTER's Keith Cross (pictured, right) had a 23-8 and a 19 on a quick trip to MK's Furzton lake while, for those with a different taste, Gilders report that Abington Park's roach are feeding well.

● BACK with the brownfish, FLECKNOE's were well on feed for White Hart Flore oldies midweek as Trevor Griffiths put in a hard shift to win with 221-3 - way ahead of Ron Collins on 147lb and Gary Muddiman 101-4.

Mick Boddilly 48-14; Brickyard Sat., Keith Garrett 67lb, Chris Garrett 54-8, Hewlett 36-4; Grendon Sun., C Garrett 36lb, Ian Drage 33-12, Richard Dunkley 26-4.

● MILL Lane, Alders: Kevin Lowe 80-12, Alex Tippler 77lb, Gary Dickinson 68-5.
